DEATH OF A YOUNG MAN. Mr. Will Heat, the only son of the late Henry Heat of Mineral county, who had been suffering for the last two years with that fatal disease, consumption, left his home at Headsville about three weeks ago to go to Colorado with the hope of bringing back his health; but ere he reached there the messenger came to him and his death occurred at Pratt, Kansas, last Friday night.

After a meagre dinner they proceeded to Ferra-dale where, in a safe and sheltered haven they can anchor not without some misadventure to one of the crew of the 'Nymphs', Miss W., who in a moment of terror at a supposed-upset, jumped overboard. She was picked up by the 'Nymphs' and taken to the shore, where she was attended to by the crew of the 'Nymphs', and received it back (empty) with the blank look moral ever worse.

Judge Armstrong Ill. On Thursday morning Judge Armstrong came into the court house and took his seat upon the bench, remarking to the Clerk, in answer to an inquiry, that he did not feel well. Court was opened, and the Judge and the Clerk, for some purpose, stepped out into the hall. While there the Judge suddenly turned pale, staggered and fell upon the floor in a state of unconsciousness.
